

Growing Kids God's Way

Summary Outline - Visit 7 - Chapter 7

I. Introduction

II. Respect for Age

A. The Commands

1. "Thou shalt rise up before the gray-headed and honor the aged one, and you shall revere your God, I am the Lord" (Leviticus 19:32).

The literal rendering of this verse is this: In the face of gray hairs, you shall rise and you shall honor the face of the old man and thus fear your God.

2. "For wisdom is with aged men; longer life is with understanding" (Job 12:12).
3. Every virtuous act toward age is credited as a virtuous act toward _____.

B. Back to basics

1. Offering your _____ to the elderly
2. Open the _____
3. Honoring age at _____ lines

C. What is the biblical justification for not spitting on the sidewalk or chewing like a barn animal?

1. Teach your children 1 Corinthians 13:5b and Titus 3:2.

"Love is not _____."

"Be _____ to all men."

2. The Interrupt Rule

- a. It becomes a vehicle for the child to demonstrate and place honor on _____, while at the same time communicating a need to the parent.
- b. The child learns to _____ the parent that his or her needs will be met in an orderly way.
- c. It helps the child gain the self-discipline of patience.
- d. It reinforces the positive side of the child's conscience; thus confirmation comes from within the heart of the child as well as from without.

- e. It communicates to the third party involved the standards of respect and honor you as a _____ are living by. (Remember, when you honor age you honor God.)
 - 3. Push your _____ in when leaving the table.
 - 4. Honor visiting guests in your home by teaching your children to _____.
- D. Whatever happened to "Mr. and Mrs."?